CHIKARA RETURNS TO GIBSONVILLE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

09/15/2015

The Fun-Filled Lucha Super Party returns to the New Mid-Atlantic Sportatorium in Gibsonville, North Carolina, at 7 p.m. Saturday, Sept. 26.

Family-friendly fun and high-flying action return to Gibsonville by popular demand! Global cult-phenomenon CHIKARA brings its unique take on pro wrestling to North Carolina as part of the company's 15th Season World Tour with "Justice is Blind," live from the Mid-Atlantic Sportatorium on Saturday, Sept. 26 with a 7 p.m. start time.

Pennsylvania-based CHIKARA provides fans in more than 40 countries a fresh and exciting take on traditional professional wrestling. Combining the visceral action of American pro wrestling with the best aspects of Mexican lucha libre, Saturday morning cartoons, comic books and video games into an all-ages "Super Party," CHIKARA has reinvented the performance art for a new era.

Hot off the sold-out King of Trios tournament in Easton, Pennsylvania, which featured top stars from CHIKARA, New Japan Pro Wrestling, Mexico's AAA, England's Attack! and Fight Club: Pro, the Season 15 tour targets the New Mid-Atlantic Sportatorium, 1001 Springwood Ave. in Gibsonville, next!

Already announced is Dasher's Dugout of Dasher Hatfield, Icarus and CHIKARA's Young Lions Cup Champion Heidi Lovelace taking on the team of Kevin Condrón, Missile Assault Man and "Juke Joint" Lucas Calhoun in trios action. CHIKARA does not divide performers by gender or weight class, so Heidi Lovelace will lock up with male opponents in this featured bout.

The acrobatic spirit dragon Shynron will face off against The Proletariat Boar of Moldova; Jakob Hammermeier will compete against the Master of Gekko-Roman Wrestling, Argus; Princess KimberLee and Los Ice Creams team up to face The Wrecking Crew; and more.

Advance tickets start at $20 and are available at CHIKARAtix.com. Children 12 and under are admitted free with a paid adult admission.
